Sermon Notes

Listening for the Big Noise (1Ki 19:12)

I. The Risk of Riding High (1Ki 18:36-39)

Elijah had stood fearlessly before King Ahab, _____ him with the idolatry of God's people.

Elijah's turn came, and following a quiet, simple _____ to God, the fire fell and consumed the sacrifice.

II. The Darkness of Discouragement (1Ki 19:4)

Why did this giant of God come to this point of _____ while the taste of Carmel's _____ was still in his mouth and the people's cries of _____ were still ringing in his ears?

Elijah, in his own mind, did not allow God to _____ His rightful place in this situation.

III. The Reassurance of Renewal (1Ki 19:12)

How did God cure Elijah's discouragement? First, He put him to _____; He taught him how to "be still."

Second, God showed Elijah his _____ and brought him to repentance.
